Onsite Conduct Rules for Service Provider Employees

I. Introduction

These Onsite Conduct Rules for Service Provider Employees (“Rules”) are required for all employees (including contractors and subcontractors) of Equifax Service Providers (“Service Provider Employees”) who provide services to Equifax at any of its facilities pursuant to a written agreement between Equifax and a third party providing services to Equifax (“Service Provider”). These Rules are provided to inform Service Provider Employees of key policies and expectations of Equifax that apply to them while at Equifax facilities as well as their obligations that pertain to any information that they may gather and maintain in the course of working onsite at Equifax. Adherence to the policies set forth in these Rules is expected, and compliance is mandatory.

All Service Provider Employees must, under the direction and control of their respective employers, comply with these Rules, as well as with all laws and regulations applicable to Equifax. All Service Providers to Equifax shall ensure that their Service Provider Employees are aware of and comply with these Rules.

These Rules do not create an employment relationship between Service Provider Employees and Equifax.

Further, Equifax reserves the right to revise these Rules at any time.

Unlawful discrimination includes discrimination against anyone because of race, color, religion, age, sex/gender (including pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, transgender status or sex-based stereotype), marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, service in the Armed Forces, national origin, physical or mental disability, genetic information, citizenship status, or any other status protected by law.

Examples of prohibited harassment include:

- Offensive remarks, negative stereotyping, comments, jokes or slurs, or other verbal or nonverbal conduct, pertaining to or showing hostility or intimidation toward a person because of his or her race, color, religion, age, sex/gender (including pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, transgender status, or sex-based stereotypes), sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, service in the Armed Forces, national origin, physical or mental disability, genetic information, citizenship status or any other status protected by law;

If you believe that you are being harassed, if you believe that someone else is being harassed, or if you believe you have been retaliated against for complaining of harassment, you should promptly report it without fear of reprisal if the report is made in good faith. You have several options for making a report:
